Welcome/ Minutes Approval Principal's Report	Minutes of October Meeting Approved Principal's Report: Grade 3 Assessment (current Grade 4) – area in Math (measurement/likely COVID closures related) No surprises in results (students have been discussed) Literacy – one student declined to participate in the assessment one day That was only surprise – some EAL students wrote Family Fun Night PTO Event: $2 200 realized after expenses; pleased with turnout, the dispersing some things/events to classrooms/staff room helped with congestion in the gym Events: Oct 10 Youth Project visit was well received (LGBT2+) Nov 1 Symphony NS trip to Rebecca Cohen was a huge success. Students were well-behaved and liked the inclusivity of the performance. Nov 7 Halifax Theater For Young People - Newcomer Performance was a perfect fit. Breakfast budget $13000 up from ~$7500	MH Post to School Website
Old Business	Building Issues: Heat/Steam Leak; Windows Very responsive Operations Supervisor, Dawn Huntley, who ALWAYS answers her phone and does what she can to help resolve our ongoing issues.	Information
New Business	Clubhouse Proposal Halifax Rugby: HRM Approval in principle given for the construction of a change room/washroom/licensed bar in the vicinity of the Rugby field adjacent the old wading pool. Query from a neighbourhood member who expressed concern about a licensed bar being so close to a school. There may be further opportunities for community consultation regarding this project. Photocopier Issue/Electrical: Recent photocopier woes have revealed an issue with the “flow” of current through the outlet to which the photocopier is plugged. Meeting Dates: November 8th, December 6th, January 10th, February 7th, March 6th, May 1st, June 12th	BC to email summary to SAC members; once errors/omissions addressed MH to post on school website.
